Core Value, Core Value Access, Core Value Flex, and Core Value Access Flex plans with a 12-month Paid Basis stop-loss contract are required to make a determination of whether or not they choose to elect Allied's Administrative Services for the administrative run-out period, and terminal liability coverage if a terminal liability option was purchased, 30 days prior to the end of the contract period. If the employer does not elect Allied Administrative Services by such deadline, (1) existing, open balance billing negotiation services will end 10 days prior to the end of the contract period, and (2) all new balance billing negotiation cases will no longer be accepted starting 30 days prior to the end of the contract period; except when the employer re-issues stop loss coverage with Us under a run-in stop-loss contract. If the employer elects Allied Administrative Services, (1) existing, open balance billing negotiation services will end 10 days prior to the end of the administrative run-out period, and (2) any new balance billing negotiation cases will no longer be accepted starting 30 days prior to the end of the administrative run-out period.
